

WORKPLACE INJURIES IN NEW YORK

HOW DO THESE INJURIES HAPPEN, AND WHAT CAN WORKERS DO FOLLOWING AN INJURY?

Nearly 150,000

non-fatal workplace injuries and illnesses took place in New York's private sector in 2014, as reported by employers.

In 2014, there were 78 FATAL WORK INJURIES IN

New York City alone, a 22 percent increase from 2013.

Over 64,000

injuries & illnesses were reported in state & local government sectors.

TOP CAUSES OF FATAL WORKPLACE INJURIES:

BEING STRUCK BY OR AGAINST AN OBJECT

10%

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

32%

FALLS, SLIPS AND TRIPS

26%

TRANSPORTATION ACCIDENTS

18%

INJURIES IN NYC CONSTRUCTION

28% of workplace fatalities occurred in the construction sector in New York City.

TOP 4 CAUSES OF CONSTRUCTION FATALITIES:

- Caught in or between objects
- Struck by an object
- Electrocutions
- Falls

Falls in construction are often due to structural collapses, like scaffolding, buildings or cranes.

CONSTRUCTION INJURIES ROSE 34%

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO AFTER A WORK INJURY?

- 01 Inform your employer or supervisor of the injury, preferably in writing.
- 02 Seek medical attention.
- 03 Keep records of your bills, treatment and correspondence from your employer.
- 04 Don't speak to your employer's insurance representative.
- 05 Contact an attorney familiar with worker's compensation claims.

Have a work injury? Call for a free consultation.

(212) 563-1900

Resources:

http://www.bls.gov/regions/new-york-new-jersey/news-release/fatalworkinjuries_newyorkcity.htm

<http://www.politico.com/states/new-york/city-hall/story/2015/08/construction-injuries-jumped-34-percent-in-a-year-data-shows-025004>

<https://www.osha.gov/oshstats/commonstats.html>

<https://www.osha.gov/SLTC/scaffolding/>

www.kaplanlawyers.com/workers-compensation-lawyers/